

ABSTRACT OF THE DISCLOSURE

An object, such as a foil balloon, is formed directly on a carrier and is manufactured while remaining on the carrier during subsequent heat sealing, die cutting, scrap removal, sheeting and printing operations.